

1. Identify and list different forms in which you and your family use the environment around your home.
2. How do these activities affect the local environment?
3. Draw a map of your local home area showing your home, local market, shopping centre, transport routes and farmland if any.
4. Identify any five physical and made features around your home area.